Dear friends, brothers, and sisters. From July 3 to 12, the 62nd Session of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists is taking place in St. Louis, Missouri. Nearly three thousand official delegates are representing our worldwide Church from 212 countries. During this time, leaders will be elected, changes to the Church's constitution will be approved and the main missionary goals for the entire Church will be determined.

With the theme of the Session, “Jesus is Coming, I Will Go!”, the Worldwide Church is entering a new page in history with the goal of reaching one billion people around the world with the message of the Soon Coming of Jesus Christ! This is a challenge of tremendous importance for each of us. We can become part of this great missionary movement by joining the ministry of our communities!

Let us unite in prayer for the revival of the missionary spirit!
